

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

My house is costing a lot of money!

Learning Outcome

Describe ways of solving problems and getting things done at work and in social contexts.

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about household problems and money.
- I can talk about solving problems.
- I can talk about things that I'm doing and things that are happening.

Ask your partner:

- Are you good at saving money? What do you save money for?
- How much money should people spend on their houses?

Let's Explore!

Renovations eat a hole in Vanessa's wallet!

* To "eat a hole in someone's wallet" is a figurative expression. It is figurative, not literal, because it is not real.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Vanessa: I'm glad I had the foresight to put some money away. These renovations are eating a hole in my wallet!
- Sally: Tell me about it! First I had a leaky roof, then there was the flood and now I need to get someone to rip up the floors and replace them! I can't even keep track of the money I'm spending. In fact, I'd better have my accountant look at everything including my investments.
- Peter: At least you are staying at the Peter hotel rather than paying an exorbitant amount somewhere else!
- Vanessa: It's true. Thanks for putting us up like this.
- Sally: It's heartwarming when you can get your friends to help you, right Peter?
- Peter: Yup, and that's why I'm getting you both to help me clean this apartment. It's pretty untidy with the three of us here ... speaking of which, how long do you guys think you are likely to stay?
- Vanessa: I think it'll be one week more for me. Sally?
- Sally: Ummm. Two. Maybe three.
- Peter: Okay ...
- Sally: I have an idea. While I stay with you why don't I get a cleaning service to come and clean for us once a week?
- Peter: Could we have the windows washed?
- Sally: Sure!
- Peter: How about we get them to dust and sweep and mop all the floors?
- Sally: Of course! That's what they're hired to do.
- Peter: Would it be asking too much to have someone reorganize the kitchen cupboards?
- Vanessa: I think that is where I would draw the line. That's not normally what a cleaning service does.
- Sally: Besides, you are looking at the queen of organization!

Let's Practice!

Peter needs to have someone clean his apartment!

Instructions: Use the words from the box to correctly complete the sentences.

Word Bank

I don't get / do I have / we get him / we get them to /
'd better have / have someone reorganize / 'm getting you

1. I _____ my accountant look at everything including my investments.
2. Yup, and that's why I _____ both to help me clean this apartment.
3. While I stay with you why _____ a cleaning service to come and clean for us once a week?
4. Would it be asking too much to _____ the kitchen cupboards?
5. How about _____ dust and sweep?

Let's Practice!

Are Sally and Vanessa cleaning Peter's place?

Instructions: Circle the correct verb form to complete the sentence.

1. These renovations _____ a hole in my wallet!
a) are eat b) be eating c) are eating d) is eating
2. At least you _____ at the Peter hotel rather than paying an exorbitant amount somewhere else!
a) is staying b) was staying c) wasn't staying d) are staying
3. I _____ an idea.
a) has b) am having c) have d) is
4. I can't even keep track of the money I _____.
a) are spend b) is spending c) was spending d) am spending
5. You _____ at the queen of organization.
a) is looking b) are looking c) being look d) looking

Extension Activity

Research and write about a cleaning company.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Look around your house and think about all the repairs and cleaning that need to be done.
- Find two companies that you could get to do those repairs and find out the cost.
- Write a paragraph of 150 words choosing the service you would prefer to use and why.
- Share your writing with a friend.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I identify household repairs that need to be done.

☐ ☐

I research two companies that do the repairs.

☐ ☐

I write a paragraph explaining which company I would choose to fix the problem.

☐ ☐

I share my writing with a friend.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- to put away (verb): to save
e.g. I had the foresight to put some money away.
- to eat a hole in my wallet (expression): to spend more money than the person estimated e.g. These renovations are eating a hole in my wallet!
- exorbitant (adjective): going beyond what is customary, proper, or reasonable in amount e.g. At least you are staying at the Peter hotel rather than paying an exorbitant amount somewhere else!
- to put (object) up (expression): to invite or allow someone to stay at your home e.g. Thanks for putting us up like this.
- to keep track of (expression): to maintain a record
e.g. I can't even keep track of the money I'm spending.
- to mop (verb): to use water to clean, especially on a floor
e.g. How about we get them to dust and sweep and mop all the floors?
- to draw the line (expression): to set a limit on something e.g. I think that is where I would draw the line.
- foresight (noun): care or provision for the future
e.g. I had the foresight to put some money away in case I need it in the future.

Learning Points

Using Causative Verbs To Get and To Have.

You use the causative with have and get to show that you want someone to do something for you. You cause the person to do something.

Causative Form with Have

Subject	have	agent	base form of the main verb	object
I	had better have	my accountant	look	at everything ...

Causative Form with Get

Subject	get	agent	infinitive form of the main verb	object
You	can get	your friends	to help	You.

Examples:

- I'd better have my accountant look at everything including my investments.
- It's heartwarming when you can get your friends to help you, right Peter?
- Yup, and that's why I'm getting you both to help me clean this apartment.
- How about we get them to dust and sweep and mop all the floors?
- Would it be asking too much to have someone reorganize the kitchen cupboards?
- Could we have the windows washed?*

Learning Points

Present Continuous Tense

Present Continuous tense is used to talk about an action that is happening or in progress at the moment.

When you use Present Continuous tense, you can use contractions. You use them often in speaking.

'It is heartwarming' becomes 'It's heartwarming'.

'I am getting' becomes 'I'm getting'.

'You are staying' becomes 'You're staying'.

Examples:

- These renovations are eating a hole in my wallet!
- At least you are staying at the Peter hotel rather than paying an exorbitant amount somewhere else!
- It's heartwarming when you can get your friends to help you, right Peter?*
- Yup, and that's why I'm getting you both to help me clean this apartment.

