

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Let's paint the house!

Learning Outcome

Describe ways of solving problems and getting things done at work and in social contexts.

Ask your partner:

- What types of colors would you paint your house?
- How often do you think a house needs to be painted?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about household problems.
- I can react to things going wrong and how to solve problems.
- I can talk about things that need to be done.

Let's Explore!

Peter's apartment needs fixing!

* Usually, when you rent an apartment the landlord is responsible for most repairs.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Sally: Oops! Sorry Peter.
Peter: Ouch! That's hot coffee!
Sally: You'd better make sure it doesn't stain. It needs to be washed right away!
Vanessa: That's a wool blend. Your shirt will need to be dry cleaned. It also looks like you spilled some over here. Wow! These are nice hardwood floors. Are they pine or oak?
Peter: They're original, but I can't distinguish what type of wood they are.
Sally: These floors need waxing and polishing. Imagine how much sleeker they would look! Entirely new floors need to be put in at my place.
Vanessa: Your place could also do with a fresh coat of paint, Peter. These walls look like they have been neglected.
Peter: The whole building has been forgotten. It was built in 1890 and then refurbished in 1925. Now it's like a time capsule from that era.
Vanessa: I think the mouldings on the ceilings are definitely reminiscent of that time. How grand!
Sally: You also have such a fantastic view but, yuck! These windows need some serious washing and then the view would be exceptional. Right now we are looking through a layer of grime.
Peter: I might be able to have the floors done, but it's the landlord's responsibility to get the windows cleaned. Anyway, both of you spend so much time criticizing when you practically spend more time here than your own abodes. Now maybe we can clean up this spill!

Let's Practice!

Peter's apartment needs to be painted!

Instructions: Cross out all the incorrect words in the sentence.

1. It sounds like it needs to be replacing.
2. If it needs to be done, it needs to being done.
3. Well, maybe it need into to be looked at first.
4. My fridge would needs to be fixed.
5. My clothes need to be washed house, so can I put a load in?

Let's Practice!

Peter talks about his old apartment!

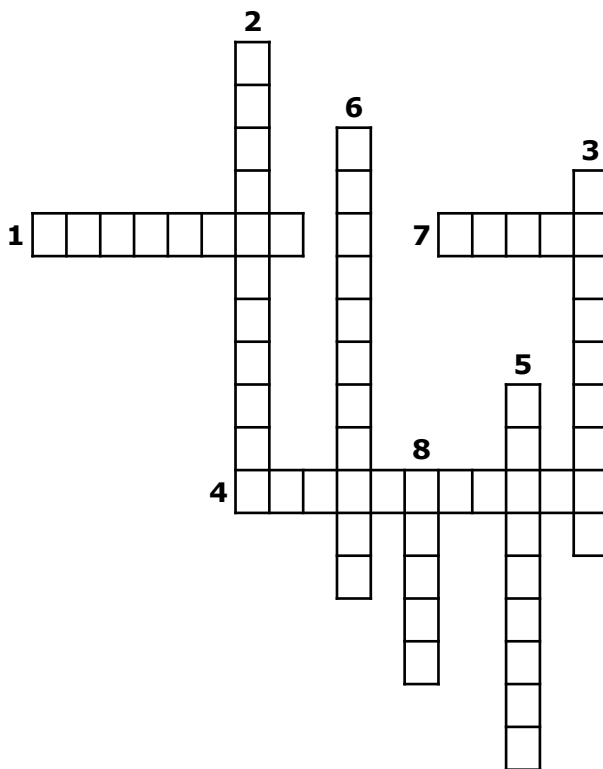

*Instructions: Read the dialogue again.
Read the clues. Complete the crossword.*

Down

2. A thin layer of paint covering something.
3. To pay little attention to something.
Example: They have been ____.
5. A shaped outline.
6. The act of reminding something or someone.
8. Residence, home.

Across

1. The hard, strong wood or timber of various broad-leaved trees.
4. A container holding articles, documents, etc, representative of the current age.
7. Dirt.

Extension Activity

Write a dialogue about a problem.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Describe a problem that needs fixing in your home.
- Write a dialogue between someone who wants to fix the problem and another person who does not.
- Use language of reaction. (uh-oh, ouch, wow, yuck)
- Read the dialogue with a friend.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I talk about a household problem.

☐ ☐

I write about a household problem.

☐ ☐

I write using reactions to things going wrong.

☐ ☐

I read the dialogue aloud about fixing a home with a friend.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- to neglect (verb): to pay no or little attention or to something e.g. These walls look like they have been neglected.
- oak (noun): a large tree
e.g. Are they pine or oak?
- hardwood (noun): the hard, strong wood or timber of various broad-leaved trees
e.g. These are nice hardwood floors.
- polishing (noun): making smooth, shiny, and glossy
e.g. These floors need waxing and polishing.
- a coat of paint (noun): a thin layer of paint covering something e.g. Your place could also do with a fresh coat of paint.
- to refurbish (verb): to restore to good condition
e.g. It was built in 1890 and then refurbished in 1925.
- moulding (noun): a shaped outline
e.g. I think the mouldings on the ceiling are definitely reminiscent of that time.
- grime (noun): dirt
e.g. Right now we are looking through a layer of grime.
- time capsule (noun): a container holding articles, documents, etc, representative of the current age e.g. Now it's like a time capsule from that era.
- abode (noun): residence, home
e.g. You practically spend more time here than your own abode.

Learning Points

Need + Passive Infinitive and Need+Verb+ing

Need + passive infinitive and need+verb+ing are two structures you use to talk about fixing problems. You use these structures to imply that you don't know who will fix the problem, or that the person fixing the problem is not the focus of the sentence.

Subject	Verb "need"	To be	Past Participle of Main Verb
It	needs	to be	washed.
Your shirt	will need	to be	dry cleaned.
Entirely new floors	need	to be	put in.

Examples:

- It needs to be washed right away!
- It will need to be dry cleaned.
- These floors need waxing and polishing.
- Entirely new floors need to be put in at my place.
- These windows need some serious washing.

Paralanguage

We use "paralanguage" to react to a situation. Paralanguage shows how we feel.

Oops - shows error

Wow - shows amazement

Yuck - shows disgust

Ouch - shows pain

Examples:

- Oops! Sorry Peter.
- Ouch! That's hot coffee!
- Wow! These are nice hardwood floors.
- Yuck! These windows need some serious washing.

