Let's Start!

Let's review!

Learning Outcome

Describe ways of solving problems and getting things done in work and social contexts.

Ask your partner:

- Have you ever had to pay more than you expected for something?
- Would you prefer to own a house or rent a place? Why?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about things that need to be done.
- I can talk about solving problems.
- I can talk about things that I'm doing and things that are happening.

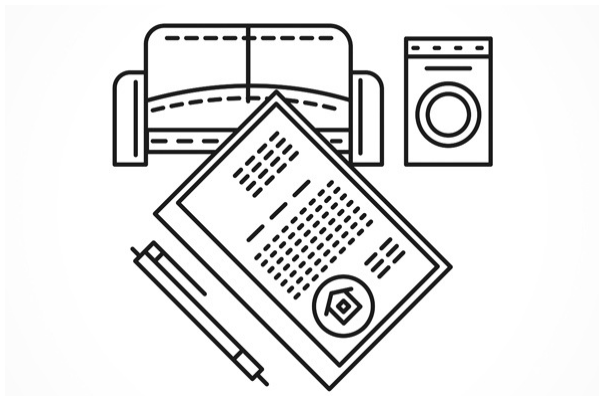

Let's Explore!

Vanessa and Sally's renovations were too expensive to believe*.

* "Renovations" always cost more than people first expect them to.

 Too + adjective + to + verb expresses something is excessive.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Peter: Well, that was another fantastic meal. Thanks V! You must be happy to be home!
- Vanessa: It's good to be home. Who knew that a busted washing machine would cause so much change to my house? I also had no idea how exorbitant it would be either.
- Sally: Let's hope nothing else falls apart. As it is, I'm still having my electrician and plumber come in next week to fix a few small problems. V, I should have known this was going to be much more expensive than it appeared at first.
- Peter: It always is. I've decided to get someone in to strip the paint in the apartment. I also got the landlord to pay for it.
- Sally: Did you get him to check the electrical issues? I almost electrocuted myself when I unplugged that lamp from the socket last night.
- Peter: Why did you unplug it?
- Sally: It was making a strange sound.
- Vanessa: That lamp needs to be thrown out!
- Peter: Oh boy. So much needs to be done. My apartment needs refurbishing but I can't do it all right now. I know new furniture also needs to be bought and the walls need to be painted.
- Vanessa: Surely we could get a couple of people to paint your place. We can help too.
- Sally: Your kitchen cupboards also need to be replaced.
- Peter: That will have to wait. I have to draw the line somewhere.
- Vanessa: I think the best idea would be to just buy a whole new house! Renovations are too expensive to believe.
- Peter: Can we watch basketball now?

Let's Practice!

Sally almost electrocutes herself!

Learning Points

Need + Passive Infinitive and Need + Verb + ing

Need + passive infinitive and need + verb + ing are two structures you use to talk about fixing problems. You use these structures to imply that we don't know who will fix the problem, or that the person fixing the problem is not the focus of the sentence.

Subject + Need + Passive Infinitive

The lamp needs to be thrown out!

Make sure you know the past participle of the main verb, especially if it's an irregular verb.

Present	Past	Past Participle
Throw	Threw	Thrown

Subject + Need + Verb + ing

My apartment needs refurbishing.

Examples:

- *That lamp needs to be thrown out!
- *Oh boy. So much needs to be done.
- My apartment needs refurbishing but I can't do it all right now.
- *I know new furniture also needs to be bought and the walls need to be painted.
- *Your kitchen cupboards also need to be replaced.

Learning Points

Causative with Have and Get

You use the causative with have and get to show that you want someone to do something for you. You cause the person to do something.

Causative Form with Have

Subject + have + agent + base form of the verb + object

I had them install my washer.

Causative Form with Get

Subject + get + agent + infinitive + object

I'll get you guys to help me paint the house from top to bottom.

Notice that have and get can be used in any verb tense or form.

Examples:

- I'm still having my electrician and plumber come in next week to fix a few small problems.
- I've decided to get someone in to strip the paint in the apartment.
- I also got the landlord to pay for it.
- Did you get him to check the electrical issues?*
- Surely we could get a couple of people to paint your place.
